

Fraud awareness

Killik and Co

What should you do if you have any concerns?

- Check the FCA register.
- Contact your Adviser.

What do we do?

Long term investing.

What will we never do?

- We do not cold call, ie. call someone who is not already a client or prospect of Killik and Co.
- Send correspondence from an address not listed on our website: Website link.
- Allow investments in crypto currency like Bitcoin.
- Have short term, urgent investment opportunities.

What do we do to reduce the likelihood of fraud?

- Bank details that you need to send money to are available via our secure portal, myKillik.
- Provide documentation via our secure portal, myKillik.
- We do not encourage you to send sensitive documentation via email.
- We encourage any email attachments to be sent password protected.
- When we are provided with updates to your information, such as bank details and addresses, we will call you back to check that it is from you.
- We use the same email format: @killik.com.

What should you do if you believe you have been a victim of fraud?

- Please contact www.actionfraud.police.uk.

Silo

What should you do if you have any concerns?

- Please contact Silo Support:

What will we never do?

- We do not cold call, ie. call someone who is not already a client of Silo.
- Send correspondence from an address not listed on our website.
- Allow investments in crypto currency.
- Contact you about updating your information as this is completed via the Silo App.

What do we do to reduce the likelihood of fraud?

- Bank details that you need to send money to are available via the Silo App.
- Provide documentation via the Silo App.
- When we are provided with updates to your information, such as bank details and addresses, we will call you back to check that it is from you.

What should you do if you believe you have been a victim of fraud?

- Please contact www.actionfraud.police.uk.